PREVENTION OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT AT WORK PLACE

I. COMMITMENT:

Our Company is committed to provide a work environment that ensures every woman employee is treated with dignity and respect and afforded equitable treatment.

The Company is also committed to promote a work environment that is conducive to the professional growth of its women employees and encourages equality of opportunity.

The Company will not tolerate any form of sexual harassment and is committed to take all necessary steps to ensure that its women employees are not subjected to any form of harassment.

II. SCOPE:

This policy applies to all categories of employees of the Company employed at all Plants Locations/Divisions of the Company, including permanent management and workmen, temporaries, trainees and employees on contract at its work place or at client sites. The Company will not tolerate sexual harassment, if engaged in by clients or by suppliers or any other business associates.

The work place includes:

1. All offices/Plants Locations/Divisions or other premises where the Company's business is conducted.
2. All Company-related activities performed at any other site away from the Company's premises.
3. Any social, business or other functions where the conduct or comments may have an adverse impact on the work place or work place relations.

III. DEFINITION OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT:

Sexual harassment may be one or a series of incidents involving unsolicited and unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, or any other verbal or physical conduct of sexual nature.

Sexual Harassment at the work place includes:

1. unwelcome sexual advances (verbal, written or physical),
2. demand or request for sexual favour,
3. any other type of sexually-oriented conduct,
4. verbal abuse or 'joking' that is sex-oriented,
5. any conduct that has the purpose or the effect of interfering with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive work environment and/ or submission to such conduct is either an explicit or implicit term or condition of employment and/ or submission or rejection of the conduct is used as a basis for making employment decisions.

IV. RESPONSIBILITIES REGARDING SEXUAL HARASSMENT:

All employees of the Company have a personal responsibility to ensure that their behavior is not contrary to this policy.

All employees are encouraged to reinforce the maintenance of a work environment free from sexual harassment.

V. COMPLAINT MECHANISM:

Whether or not such conduct constitutes an offence under law or a breach of the service rules, an appropriate complaint mechanism in the form of “Internal Complaints Committee” has been created in the Company for time-bound redressal of the complaint made by the victim.

VI. INTERNAL COMPLAINTS COMMITTEE:

The Company has instituted Internal Complaints Committees for Plant Locations/Divisions of the Company where women are employed for redressal of sexual harassment complaint (made by the victim) and for ensuring time bound treatment of such complaints. The reconstitution of the Committee is done by the Board of Director, as and when required. The Committee works in accordance with the Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act, 2013.

The Internal Complaints Committee is responsible for:

- Investigating every formal written complaint of sexual harassment
- Taking appropriate remedial measures to respond to any substantiated allegations of sexual harassment
- Discouraging and preventing employment-related sexual harassment

VII. PROCEDURES FOR RESOLUTION, SETTLEMENT OR PROSECUTION OF ACTS OF SEXUAL HARASSMENT:

The Company is committed to providing a supportive environment in which to resolve concerns of sexual harassment as under:

A. Informal Resolution Options:

1. When an incident of sexual harassment occurs, the victim of such conduct can communicate her disapproval and objections immediately to the harasser and request the harasser to behave decently.

2. If the harassment does not stop or if victim is not comfortable with addressing the harasser directly, she can bring her concern to the attention of the Internal Complaints Committee for redressal of her grievances. The Internal Complaints Committee will thereafter provide advice or extend support as requested and will undertake prompt investigation to resolve the matter.

B. Complaints:

1. Any aggrieved employee with a harassment concern, who is not comfortable with the informal resolution options or has exhausted such options, may make a formal complaint to the Chairperson of the Internal Complaints Committee constituted by the Management. The complaint shall have to be in writing and can be in form of a letter, within a period of 3 months from the date of incident, sent in a sealed envelope. Alternately, the employee can send complaint through an email. The employee is required to disclose his/her name, department, division and location she is working in, to enable the Chairperson to contact him/her and take the matter forward.
The Internal Committee for the reasons to be recorded in writing, extend the time limit not exceeding three months, if it is satisfied that the circumstances were such which prevented the employee from filing a complaint within the said period.
2. The Chairperson of the Internal Complaints Committee will proceed to determine whether the allegations (assuming them to be true only for the purpose of this determination) made in the complaint fall under the purview of Sexual Harassment, preferably within 30 days from receipt of the complaint. In the event, the allegation does not fall under the purview of Sexual Harassment or the allegation does not mean an offence of Sexual Harassment, the Chairperson will record this finding with reasons and communicate the same to the complainant.
3. If the Chairperson of the Internal Complaints Committee determines that the allegations constitute an act of sexual harassment, s/he will proceed to investigate the allegation with the assistance of the Internal Complaints Committee.
4. Where such conduct on the part of the accused amounts to a specific offence under the law, the Company shall initiate appropriate action in accordance with law by making a complaint with the appropriate authority.
5. The Internal Complaints Committee shall conduct such investigations in a timely manner and shall submit a written report containing the findings and recommendations to the Audit Committee of the Company as soon as practically possible and in any case, not later than 90 days from the date of receipt of the complaint. The Audit Committee will ensure corrective action on the recommendations of the Internal Complaints Committee and keep the complainant informed of the same.

Corrective action may include any of the following:

- a. Formal apology
 - b. Counselling
 - c. Written warning to the perpetrator and a copy of it maintained in the employee's file.
 - d. Change of work assignment/ transfer for either the perpetrator or the victim.
 - e. Suspension or termination of services of the employee found guilty of the offence
6. In case the complaint is found to be false, the Complainant shall, if deemed fit, be liable for appropriate disciplinary action by the Management.

VIII. CONFIDENTIALITY:

The Company understands that it is difficult for the victim to come forward with a complaint of sexual harassment and recognizes the victim's interest in keeping the matter confidential.

To protect the interests of the victim, the accused person and others who may report incidents of sexual harassment, confidentiality will be maintained throughout any investigatory process to the extent practicable and appropriate under the circumstances.

IX. ACCESS TO REPORTS AND DOCUMENTS:

All records of complaints, including contents of meetings, results of investigations and other relevant material will be kept confidential by the Company except where disclosure is required under disciplinary or other remedial processes.

X. PROTECTION TO COMPLAINANT/ VICTIM:

The Company is committed to ensuring that no employee who brings forward a harassment concern is subject to any form of reprisal. Any reprisal will be subject to disciplinary action.

The Company will ensure that victim or witnesses are not victimized or discriminated against while dealing with complaints of sexual harassment.

However, anyone who abuses the procedure (for example, by maliciously putting an allegation knowing it to be untrue) will be subject to disciplinary action.

XI. CONCLUSION:

In conclusion, the Company reiterates its commitment to providing its women employees, a work place free from harassment/ discrimination and where every employee is treated with dignity and respect.
